

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Twelfth Annual Rainbow Book Fair Sets the Stage for a Literary Extravaganza on April 20, 2024

New York, NY — The dynamic five-member Coordinating Committee of the Rainbow Book Fair is thrilled to unveil the details for its highly anticipated twelfth annual event, scheduled for April 20, 2024. This literary celebration will once again captivate attendees at The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center, located at 208 West 13th Street in the heart of New York City (between 7th and 8th Avenues).

In an exciting collaboration, the Rainbow Book Fair is partnering with the recently reopened and renovated LGBT Center. The event will commandeer all three floors of this historic building, creating ample space for an expanded roster of vendors, engaging panel discussions, inspiring speakers, and opportunities for attendees to connect with authors, enthusiasts, and potential book buyers.

Anticipated to attract over 100 exhibitors, authors, and publishers, along with nearly 2000 enthusiastic readers and fans of all ages and genders from across the US, Canada, South America, and the global LGBT community, the New York Rainbow Fair promises an energetic and supportive atmosphere. The eclectic array of books, magazines, and graphic novels on display will range from the thought-provoking to the wildly imaginative, catering to diverse literary tastes.

As always, the Fair will feature irresistible book discounts, hourly book giveaways, enlightening panels on writing and publishing, author readings, and a non-stop Poetry Salon. Sponsored by CLAGS, the Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies at CUNY, the event guarantees a convergence of luminaries from the expansive and diverse LGBT reading and writing community, showcasing a vibrant mix of words, images, and talent.

Whether you're a seasoned writer or a literary enthusiast, the 12th Annual New York Rainbow Book Fair offers something for everyone. Expect new voices to mingle with established authors, academic presses to stand alongside magazines, graphic novels, and speculative fiction. Scholarly panels on the history and future of gay literature, along with specialized events for genre readers and writers, ensure a rich and inclusive experience for all members of the wider LGBT community.

Save the date for the 12th Annual New York Rainbow Book Fair on April 20, 2024, at The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center, 208 West 13th Street (between 7th and 8th Avenues), New York, NY, from 12:00 PM until 6:00 PM. Admission is free, and the venue is wheelchair accessible, with sign language interpreters available upon advance request.

For further details, please visit www.rainbowbookfair.com. Organizers and select authors are available for press interviews regarding this exciting event. To schedule interviews or cover the event, please contact The Rainbow Art Fair Media Contact, Darrell Perry, at rainbowbookfair123@gmail.com or call (917) 783 0127.